

I understand that one of my local radio stations may go away due to a new service (LPFM) that would supersede their service. Air1 is a family freindly community oriented station with positive strong values that all in my family can enjoy. Other programing offered would not provide the same family values and quality that this and every community needs. Please reconsider your position and leave existing stations and programming alone.

Sincerely,